

Largest Milo Crop In History; Farmers To Get $300,000

By Joe Buser

Mrs. J. D. Schweers of Dunbar, had a most un-welcome assistant last week as she hunted for a brooding hen on her farm. As she intently searched the area near a milk shed, for the missing mother, she discovered a three-foot rattlesnake. Her husband, who was near by, however, and quick-witted, dispatched the would-be hunter.

Mrs. Schweers gave up the hunt.

Hondo's proposed new hospital is due to benefit from a Bridge and Canasta party being sponsored Thursday night, July 25, by the local chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha. Last spring the organization voted to set aside a portion of each money-making project for use at the hospital when it is completed.

The Bridge and Canasta party is to be held in the air-conditioned Medina Electric Co-op building beginning at 8 p.m. Entrance fee is $1 and tickets may be purchased from members of the organization or at the door Thursday evening. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Cadet and student officers at Hondo Air Base were entertained Tuesday night with a barbecue, given by the City of Hondo and the Chamber of Commerce.

The affair was held at the picnic grounds on the airfield.

Tourney Winners Awarded

Hondo Summer Recreation Program, under the direction of Tom Moseley and his assistant, Mary Jo Meyer, had a pair of tournaments last Friday at the lacy school gym.

The weekly event was a badminton tourney for the older children and a Chinese checkers tournament for the "midgets", eight years old and under. Winners in the tournaments receive award ribbons of blue for first, red for second and white for third place honors in each event.

Last week's winners in the contests on Friday were: badminton, junior boys division, age 10 and under, Larry B y b e e, Bob McAnelly and Mike Pope; junior girls winners were Diane Dyess, Frances Meyer and Celeste Staceme. In the intermediate division, age 13 and under, Ken Earnsworth, Ronny Taylor and Ken Chapman took top honors in the boys section; Becky Hoffman, Maude Corder and Gayle Tilley topped the honors for the girls.

In the midget boys competition, Bob Hartung, Sam Bybee and Arthur Vance placed first, second and third, respectively in Chinese checkers competition; winners in the girls division were Louise Porter, Wendy Porter and Mike Dyess.

Explorers To Be Guests At Lackland AFB

Forty Sandia District Explorer Scouts and their leaders will be at Lackland Air Force Base August 2, 3 and 4 as guests of the Air Force.

Approximately 200 fourteen-year-olds have been sent invitations to the first air encampment for the Sandia District, and acceptance will be on a first come, first serve basis, according to Carl Dillard, district campmaster and activities chairman from Pearland.

The Explorers chosen will be housed in dormitories, two to a room and fed in a regular mess hall on the base, at a cost of $4. Each boy will receive about 15 minutes of instruction in a T33 link trainer; they will have a regular flight briefing and an orientation flight in a C47 or C54. Flight release forms signed by parents, are necessary, Dillard said.

The Explorers will serve as official color guard during their stay at Lackland and will conduct the base flag ceremonies.

Air Force officials met with Dillard and Floyd Harriman, Jr., District Scout Executive, to map out plans for the encampment. Capt. O. U. Ovington and Sgt. Ray Knowles will be in charge of the program and arrangements on the base.

Two Local Boys Complete Summer Camp

Two Texas Arts and Industries students from Medina County are scheduled to complete six weeks of summer ROTC training August 5, at Fort Gordon, Ga., with members of the Texas A&I College cadet program.

The boys are Calvin J. Hutzler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Hutzler, Rio Medina, and Joseph D. Schott, son of Mrs. Helen Schott, Devine.

No Injuries In Two Accidents This Week

No charges were filed in the two accidents reported last week, according to Highway Patrolman Kay Phillips who investigated both.

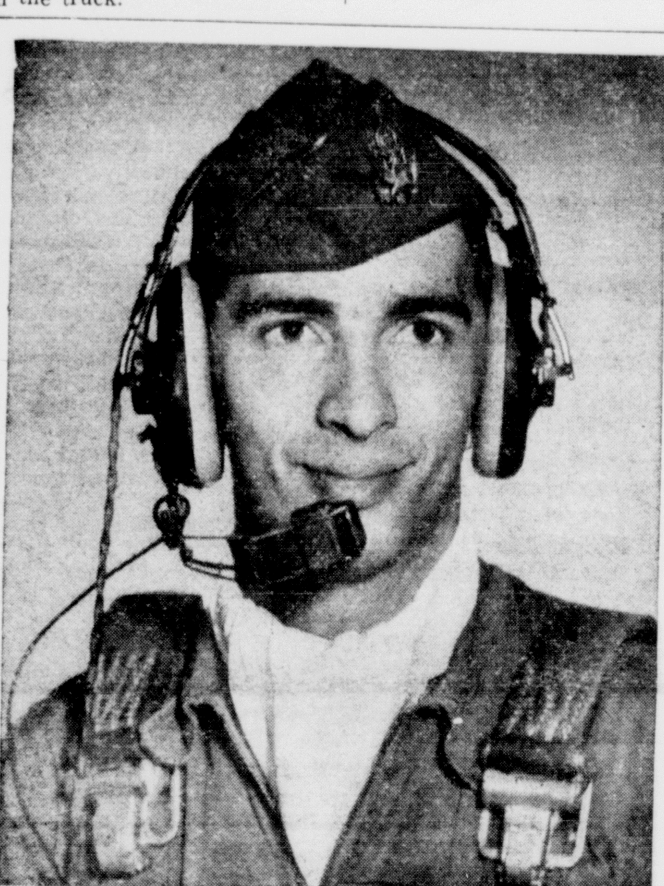

WEDNESDAY

A 1956 Chevrolet driven by Robert Winston Hooper of San Antonio collided with a broomcorn truck owned by Raymond Haby of Rio Medina driven by Joe Russell Weber of San Antonio Wednesday of last week at 11:40 a.m.

Weber was making a left turn from Highway 90 on the Quil Road when Hooper's car traveling west collided in passing the truck.

An estimated $250 damage was done to the car; $10 was reported on the truck.

Aviation Cadet George R. McGrillis has been chosen as Hondo Air Base's winner in the Cadet of the Month competition. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton A. McGrillis of Middleboro, Mass.

Cadet McGrillis is a member of Class 58-Julieth, which is currently undergoing USAF Primary Pilot Training at Hondo Air Base.

Mumme Bitten By Snake

Billy Mumme, 10-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mumme, was bitten by a rattlesnake Friday afternoon as he was walking barefoot through a barn near his home north of Hondo. The snake struck him on the arch of his right foot.

His dad was nearby and after administering first aid, rushed the boy to Medina Hospital where he was treated four days. His entire leg was affected by the bite.

The snake was killed. It had seven buttons on its tail, but they were large and it was obvious that more had been broken off.

Billy was the second snake bite victim reported in Hondo in a ten-day period. Mrs. J. H. Clements was in Medina Hospital the week before, the result of a bite.

Two Hondo Boys Attend State FFA Convention

Two Hondo boys, Howard Saathoff and George Koch, attended the three-day State FFA Convention in Fort Worth July 17, 18, and 19. They were accompanied by John McAnelly, local FFA chapter advisor.

The annual convention was held this year in Will Rogers Auditorium with more than 1,000 FFA chapters from Texas represented. Entire program at the convention was conducted by the state boy-leaders.

Several highlights of the trip were a tour of the Fort Worth stock yards and meat packing plants, a visit to a boot shop, and a special Fun Night.

LEAVING Hondo Air Base August 1 is Chaplain (Major) Marion L. Nelson, who has been assigned to the 501 Tactical Control Group in Landstuhl, Germany. Mayor Nelson has been at HAB since December, 1956.

11 Cent Cut In Key Rates

Insurance key rates were dropping 11 cents in Hondo effective July 15, according to word from the state insurance board.

This will mean that on a $10,000 policy covering a frame mercantile building, the saving would amount to $5. It is believed that the total saving for Hondo will amount to several hundred dollars a year in the cost of insurance.

Improvements in mercantile district water mains lowered the key rate 1 cent; residential water main improvements lowered

16 Million Pounds Already Shipped

A bumper maize crop, believed to be the biggest in the history of Medina County, is in its third week of harvesting, with some 160 carloads already shipped.

Local Boy To Play In All Star Game

Frank Ortega, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reyes Ortega of D'Hanis, has been invited to play for the West team in the all-star football game of the Texas Six-Man Coaches School, to be held at McMurry College in Abilene July 29 through August 2.

Ortega, who played four years in the backfield for D'Hanis High School, threw six touchdown passes and was credited with completing 50 per cent of his attempted aeriats.

He is slated for action in the West squad's backfield when they meet the East all-stars at 8 p.m. August 2 in McMurry's Indian Stadium.

Twenty four outstanding football players from six-man teams throughout the state have been invited to play in the all-star game. The West squad will be coached by W. L. Young of Sterling City, T. S. Jones of China will coach the East team.

The coaching school is expected to draw hundreds of participants from about 150 schools in the Six-Man Coaches Association of Texas, according to E. A. Works of Afton, executive-secretary of the association.

Another highlight of the school will be an East-West basketball game, to be played in the McMurry Gymnasium at 8 p.m. on August 1.

Coaches for the basketball all-stars will be Jiggs Jackson of Cotton Center for the West, and Doyle Jones of Harleton for the East.

Ten lecturers will speak at the coaching clinic on football, basketball, track, athletic injuries, rules, and sports publicity.

Bandera Road Bids To Be Let

Plans are being completed for the basing and topping of 9.2 miles of Highway 689 from U.S. Hwy. 90 to Bandera, according to County Judge Arthur H. Rothe. According to Judge Rothe, who received notice from division engineers, grading, bridges and drainage structures are just completed and the letting of bids for the basing and topping of the road will be in August in Austin. Cost is approximated at $16,000.

The local highway engineering department is now at work preparing an estimate and specifications, Judge Rothe said.

Mrs. Herman Pohn is in charge of preparing and serving meals.

Hondo Broomcorn Higher Quality, Higher Prices

Prices for broomcorn from the Hondo area seem to be higher than from neighboring areas, probably because of the quality of the crop, according to one local grower.

One local farmer, Fritz Senne, is reported to have sold his crop for $350 a ton to a Beaumont buyer. Prices in the Devine area are reported to range from $200 to $250 per ton, and selling there is said to be slow.

Current price being paid for maize is $1.55 per hundred weight; the 16 million pounds already shipped brought Medina County farmers $248,000. Only 60 or 70 per cent of the crop has been harvested, according to Russell Chapman, Hondo grain buyer.

If the remainder of the crop is harvested, and prices hold, Medina County farmers should get about $300,000.

Average yield per acre is between two and three thousand pounds, according to Chapman, who predicted a very good yield from early planted crops. Crops planted late were damaged by hot, dry weather, he said, and will produce very little grain.

Two weeks ago, the Extension Service at Texas A&M College warned the state of infestation of milo head smut, particularly Medina County. However, according to County Agent C. B. Gaston, only one field with head smut in the county had been detected. Gaston did suggest that farmers in this area watch their fields closely for out-breaks of the disease.

Masons Honored Moss

O. L. Moss of Hondo was installed Captain of the Host of Lytle Chapter Royal Arch Masons in ceremonies held at Lytle July 16.

Other officers installed were William Smith, Macedonia as Most Excellent High Priest; Jack Hall of Pearland as Excellent King; Alfred Gray of Lytle as Excellent Scribe; Ed M. Wells of Lytle as Principal Sojourner; Reader Grant of Pearland as Royal Arch Captain; Ed Roe of Atascosa as Master of the Third Vail; J. P. Brabury of Lytle as Master of the Second Vail and Otis Cook of Pearland as Master of the First Vail.

Dr. T. B. Knopp retired as presiding officer of the Chapter and Council.

Troop 219 Goes To Indian Creek

Eleven members of Boy Scout Troop 219, Hondo, spent a week at Indian Creek Scout Camp near Ingram recently.

The boys, Ivan Stracener, Elso Gonzales, Ricky Jones, Stevie Jones, Frank Hernandez, Mike Allen, Wayne Korbell, Mike Pope, Mike Coyle, John Tondre and Skipper Meyers, were accompanied by their scoutmaster, Ralph Jones and his assistant, Virgil Myers.

The two patrols went "Buckskin"; that is, they cooked their own breakfast and lunch each day, and likewise washed their own dishes for the meals. According to Jones, the week's water hauling and wood chopping meant hard work as well as play for the boys.

Both the Eagle and the Rattlesnake patrols received coups for aquatics and camp cleanliness; several of the boys also qualified for merit badges.

Jones was tapped out during the Friday night campfire session as a new member of the Order of the Arrow, a nation-wide service organization for outstanding Scouts.

Petitions Request Hospital Election

Petitions asking that the Commissioners Court of Medina County call an election regarding a hospital for the county are being circulated in eight towns. The petitions ask that the bond election be in the amount of $300,000 which will cover this area's share of the cost of the new plant and its equipment and enough operating capital to get the hospital in operation and perhaps self-supporting.

The full amount of these bonds would be sold only if needed, so taxpayers will know that only the amount of money necessary will be used.

Joe Briscoe, member of the Hospital Committee and also an officer in the Devine Chamber of Commerce, said that he could not carry the petition around in Devine since the Chamber of Commerce there has officially gone on record as being in favor

Hondo Girls Twirling In San Marcos

Thirteen students from Hondo are getting a taste of college life this week — studies and all. Kathy Bendele, Nancy Burch, Anna Beth Eggen, Karen Eggen, Claudia Faselner, Karenina Grun, Laura Meyer, Carol Dee Parsons, Carol Ann Rath, Gracene Rogers, Roxene K. Schwene, Joylene Tilley and Rita Ulbrich are among the 174 high school students attending the fifth annual band clinic and twirling school at Southwest Texas State Teachers College in San Marcos July 22 through 26.

Swatzell At A&M For Fire School

Orby Swatzell, Hondo Fire Marshall and Arthur T. Dale, are currently enrolled in the Texas Firemen's Training School on the campus of Texas A and M College. The week-long annual event will be completed July 2.

A total of 1,028 students are attending the school. They represent fire departments and safety divisions of cities, industries and military camps located throughout Texas and 20 other states.

The school is sponsored by the State Firemen's and Fire Marshals' Association and is conducted by the Engineering Extension Service of the Texas A. and M. College System.

In addition to the regular fire-fighting courses, special features of this year's school will include training in radiation and radiological monitoring, rescue operations, and field demonstrations of the latest methods of fire control.

Basic courses in firefighting are given to men attending the school for the first time, and advanced courses are conducted for experienced firefighters. Special courses are being given for fire marshals, fire officers, fire department instructors, and military and industrial firemen.

Tondre has one in Castroville. Raymond Schuchart at Rio Medina, Calvin Hardt at Yancey and Herman Ney in D'Hanis. Citizens living in those areas may read and sign the petition whether they are for or against the proposal. The paper merely asks that an election be called to decide the matter and does not obligate support of the project.

In Hondo, petitions may be signed at the Chamber of Commerce office, at Fly Drug Company and all local hospital committees are carrying them.

Broomcorn Crops In Other Areas

Broomcorn outlook in other areas of the county, compiled by telephone by C. B. Gaston, County Agent, for the Hondo Chamber of Commerce is:

Lindsey, Okla. Over-all good general condition with normal total acreage. Early crops are very small but are said to be of very good quality. A rumor that one crop was offered about $500. Late crop corn was planted last week, most on heavy land that will retain enough moisture to mature.

Springfield, Colo. About 75,000 acres of broomcorn is expected. Fair crop prospects, mostly late, to be harvested in September. More moisture than usual in Springfield this year, and sub-soil moisture is still good in the sandy soil.

Tucumcari, N.M. Prospects not expected to be as good as 1956 in Tucumcari. Both dry and irrigated acreage less than usual. Crops are about three weeks behind last year, according to reports. Ranges from three inches to waist high now. Farmers received about $500 for crops last year, and are hoping for the same price this year.

Donald Koch Awarded Navy Citation

Electrician's Mate Third Class Donald S. Koch, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Koch of Hondo, recently received a citation for efficiency and excellent performance from the commander of his ship.

Commander James J. Cook Jr., of the USS John W. Thomason (DD-769) said in the citation that Koch's performance of duty most significantly contributed to the improvement of the engineering department of the vessel and his outstanding example, in both military and technical aspects of his rate contributed to the overall achievement of the USS Thomason. The ship placed first in competition for the Pacific Fleet.

She was treated at the Castroville clinic and later released. She is recovering at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Helen Burrell, Rio Medina.

QUOTES AGAIN FROM THE SANTLEBEN STORY

Mr. Santleben Wrote:

"He (the author's father) resided on the land he first settled until 1854, and then removed to a tract which he purchased from Samuel Etter, the father of Jacob and Samuel Etter, Jr., both of whom are now substantial farmers and live on Sousa Creek four miles east of Castroville, adjoining the farm bought by my father, which was then situated in Bexar County on the Eagle Pass and El Paso road. In a few years the farm was nicely improved by hard work, and as the land was productive he made good crops, at the same time gathering around him a small number of horses and cattle, so that he was able to live more comfortably.

"Free pasturage was abundant, and as there was no expense attached to stock raising every farmer had a few animals, but many owned a thousand or more cattle, besides small herds of horses. The latter were not numerous, because of the risk of having them stolen by Indians. Bigfoot Wallace owned the largest number in that region which were principally on Mustang Prairie, four miles below La Coste station, but the Indians succeeded in stealing them all eventually notwithstanding the fact that he kept a constant watch over them and often punished them severely for their thefts.

"My childhood years were passed happily and I had a good and easy time, although I helped my father all I could on the farm in light work or in making myself useful in many ways, but I never fancied farming very much. When I was not more than eight years old I would occasionally help him saw lumber when he could get no one else to assist him, because, as I have stated, it required two persons to perform such work with a whipsaw — one above and another in the pit below.

"My first visit to San Antonio was made with my father in 1854, and it was on this occasion that I was made happy by the wonderful things I saw in the city which filled my childish mind with astonishment. The business portion of the town was then confined to the two plazas, and most of the improvements were in that vicinity. I suppose the population at that time was not more than 3000 of all classes.

"My next trip away from home was when I accompanied my father to Fort Inge on his wagon that was loaded with corn which he sold to the government. It was a part of a certain quantity he had contracted to deliver, at 40 cents and 50 cents per bushel, as forage for a company of dragoons that was then stationed at said fort, four miles below the present town of Uvalde, and another detachment at Fort Well on the Laredo road, both of which have been abandoned many many years. All the men in these companies were splendidly mounted on the best horses Missouri could furnish. Their saddles were the old government pattern, with solid brass stirrups, weighing two pounds, and all the mountings were of the same metal. Every soldier was armed with two holstered pistols, each with a single barrel, and a Mississippi yager, both of the same caliber, therefore they used the same fixed cartridges loaded with a ball and three buckshot. I was only nine years of age, but I took notice of everything as they were the first soldiers I had ever seen; there I ate my first hard-tack, and there I saw the first playing cards. While my father was unloading the corn, I busied myself gathering the cards that were scattered around the camp. Until then I had never seen painted pictures of any kind, and I thought the cards were the prettiest things my eyes had ever gazed upon.

"About that date my father hired Paul Oefinger to help him on the farm and he worked for him three years, in which time he saved up enough money to buy fifty acres of land near Quil, eleven miles west of Castroville. When he moved on his place he had no one to assist him and my father hired me to him to drive the oxen when plowing or hauling for $15 per month and my board. I remained with him four months, and though only twelve years of age, my duties were performed to the satisfaction of my employer.

"In those days oxen were the only animals that were used on farms on the western frontier for draft purposes, partly because the original outlay and cost of keeping them was less than for horses, and another reason was the risk of losing them on account of Indians who were always stealing horses. The oxen were always necked together, and after the day's work the yoke was removed, a bell was suspended to one of their necks, and they were turned out on the range until wanted, when the tinkling bell indicated their whereabouts.

Highlights and Sidelights from STATE CAPITAL

A big change is forthcoming in the operation of the largest law enforcement division of the State.

In keeping with recommendations of the Texas Research League, following a two-year study, the Texas Department of Public Safety will reorganize into six commands. Each command will be responsible to the central office in Austin.

Headquarters of the six regions will be in Lubbock, Corpus Christi, Waco, Houston, Dallas and Midland. Two Highway Patrol districts will be within each command.

Col. Homer Garrison will continue in the Austin office, in overall charge, with the rank of major.

Heading the various commands will be Capt. R. A. (Bob) Crowder (Lubbock); Chief Kent Odum (Corpus Christi); Chief W. J. Elliott (Waco); Capt. Glenn Rose (Houston); Capt. Guy Smith (Dallas); and Capt. W. E. Speir (Midland).

In addition to the regional reorganization, the new plan calls for four central divisions in Austin. Identification and intelligence services will be in charge of Chief Joel Tisdale. Motor vehicle records and services will be handled by Chief A. F. Temple. Personnel and staff services will be directed by Chief Glen McLaughlin. And inspection and planning will be headed by Chief G. W. Busby.

Colonel Garrison said the move would result in more efficient service and greater economies. "The Texas Rangers also will come under the regional grouping," Garrison stated. "A Ranger captain will be within each region, and responsible to the regional commander."

TO DAM OR NOT TO DAM
A slice of the sort of troubles that plague Texas water development planning is shown in the current problems of the Brazos River Authority.

At Gov. Price Daniel's request, BRA directors held a statewide conference in Austin. Purpose: to reconcile the numerous conflicting views on how best to use the waters of the 1300-mile stream. Scores of people came and spoke their minds, but reconciliation was hard to find.

BRA directors suggest a six-dam program on the Brazos. It would include raising the level of Possum Kingdom Dam and constructing six more dams between it and Whitney Dam. Cost is estimated at $183,000,000. BRA hopes to borrow $50,000,000 from the federal government, get the rest from private bond sales. All would eventually be repaid, according to the plan, by revenue from sale of power and water.

But downstream water users and private power companies are dead set against the plan. Representatives of South Texas industrial and agricultural interests contend that paying for the dams would raise the price of water they use from $1 to $10 an acre foot. Private utility spokesmen say the dams would produce more power than anyone wants at a higher price than anyone will pay. And people living near Possum Kingdom fear that raising the dam level would flood their land.

TEMPEST AT TECH
Gusts from a political-educational storm that swirled up out of the Plains blew into the State Capitol.

In a closed session, directors of Texas Tech at Lubbock fired Professors Byron R. Abernethy and Herbert M. Greenberg and abolished the job of Dr. Per Stensland. In explanation, Board member J. Evetts Haley said Drs. Abernethy and Greenberg "did not measure up to academic standards." He called the adult education program in which Stensland was engaged "boondoggling."

About The Hospital, This Is

NO TIME FOR PLAYING OSTRICH
By JERRY JUNE BERGER

An ostrich, on finding itself in a situation it doesn't like, buries its head in the sand, on the theory that what it doesn't permit itself to see doesn't exist. We understand that a few people have expressed opposition to the building of a hospital in Medina County because . . . "we don't need it — we already have enough" . . . but what they seem to be overlooking is that Medina Hospital in Hondo will not continue to operate as it has for these many years. The owners want to sell their interests and preferably to someone who will operate it as a convalescent home. This also is greatly needed as many times persons who are recovering from an injury or illness could be served just as well in a nursing home and that way not occupy a hospital bed needed for emergency patients.

The Castroville Clinic, which will continue to operate as a hospital, could not possibly serve the needs of the entire county with the space that it now has.

Mrs. Mary Cook, co-owner of Medina Hospital, told us a few days ago that this month had been one of their busiest, and jokingly commented that if they had many more weeks as hectic as week before last, she didn't know whether they could wait for the county to get that new hospital built before they offer their plant for sale. She has had more than 30 years experience managing the hospital so she knows a busy month when she has one.

The new hospital would be so well equipped that it could care for many patients that must now go on in to crowded, impersonal city hospitals. It will have facilities and testing equipment not found in either of the county's hospitals. It will be designed to serve you and your family in the best possible way.

Let's get our heads out of the sand. Let's not be ostriches on this hospital matter, but face up to the facts and realize that the construction of a new hospital is a necessity.

But numerous observers attributed the dismissals to the professors' liberal political views as contrasted to the ultra conservative platform on which Haley ran for governor last summer. There were protests and demands for re-consideration.

Governor Daniel made no comment on the professors, but said he thought the secret session was "a mistake." Tech President Dr. E. N. Jones predicted the board would have another session on the subject soon.

Capitol reporters compared the case with the 1944 furore that resulted when Dr. Homer Price Rainey was fired as University of Texas president.

PENNY-PINCHING DUE

If the Legislature meets in special session this fall, members may have to ration every paper clip to get by financially.

State Treasury has hardly an extra nickel. There is, however, $460,000 appropriated last session for interim legislative expenses. But State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert has raised a question as to whether this could legally be used for special session expenses.

If the attorney general rules it cannot, legislators will have to amend the appropriation bill in order to get at the $460,000. Even so, it may be nip and tuck to get by. Previous special sessions have cost about $500,000.

Numerous economy measures have been proposed. Sen. David Ratliff suggested a swift three to six-day session with no pay. Rep. Louis Dugas proposed cutting the number of secretaries. House Speaker Waggoner Carr is polling members as to whether they (1) favor a special session, (2) would serve without pay and (3) favor a tax to pay session costs.

PERSONAL APPEARANCE

By JERRY JUNE BERGER

COL. R. C. BOWARD of Texas Aviation Industries, has been promoted from crutches to a cane. He was up in a tree at his place in San Antonio a few weeks ago, doing some pruning when he fell, scratching his arm and badly cutting and bruising his leg. For a week he was hardly able to get around, but hopes soon to be able to toss away the cane.

Not long ago we heard about a tree surgeon who was injured when he fell out of his patient, which sounded funny except that it could be rather bad. So be careful if you propose to do tree trimming. Be sure the limb you save is your own.

Another summer casualty was MARY RUTH CAMERON who took poison ivy when she visited the Camp Fire Girls Camp Mary Louise. Now some six weeks and $51 in medicine later, she is okay again — just in time to take some little girls up there camping in August. But she says they hope to have all the vine cleared out by that time.

There's a rhyme about poison ivy going something like "if it has leaves three, let it be" and the pesky stuff is quite difficult to kill. Burning is not the solution as that is supposed to make it even more contagious to the bystander. Spraying with a weed killer is the most effective means judging from articles we've read on the topic.

make the move Monday. MRS. ERWIN BOHMFALK is learning the ropes of her old job.

That the BOBBY JOE GRAFF family has bought the L. D. WILLIAMS home? The WILLIAMS left Hondo Tuesday for their new home in Pasadena, where "BLACKIE" will be working for a plastics firm.

That SHERIFF CHARLES HITZFELDER has purchased the J. D. ENLOE home? The ENLOES left this week for Anaheim, Calif. and are tentatively planning to move there.

That the JEAN ULBRICHES phoned their daughter in Germany Saturday night? The call went through about 9 p.m. Hondo time, 4 a.m. German time and they declare the conversation was as clear as it would have been on a local call. MARY FRANCES was happy to hear from them and especially since her husband was away on maneuvers for a few days. She left Hondo last winter.

LETTER TO
THE EDITORMr. W. E. Berger,
Hondo, Texas.

Dear Sir:

Perhaps if all of us wrote you concerning public questions, you would be swamped for want of newspaper space but since not many take advantage of the occasion, I wish to say just this: I think we nearly all agree on the necessity of building a hospital. If it is a county hospital, taxes must pay for it. However, I am still for it. If I understand it right, I agree with Mr. Hardy in one respect and disagree with him in another. I wholeheartedly agree with him in that we are centralizing too much power in our national government. I believe in more state rights. The more national aid we get, the more national taxes we pay. Our school systems should be left entirely to the control of the individual states. Federal aid in any respect (if I understand it right) must be paid by the people of the United States. Then why should we ever have allowed aid to be given, but since some are getting aid, why not accept it now for a hospital?

However, I congratulate Mr. Hardy for the courage and stand he has taken for what he thinks is right. Very truly yours,
E. S. Rieber

Senate debate on the civil rights bill has been helpful. It has clarified the issues involved. It has placed important facts before the Senate and the country. It has caused many Americans outside the South to realize that this is no simple yes-or-no proposition.

Senator Russell of Georgia said at one point: "We are dealing with an issue that is vital to the welfare of our States and to the peace and happiness and security of our people."

This has been heralded right-to-vote law. Now, even body wants people to have the right to vote. But this proposed legislation goes far beyond that. Under the terms of the bill presented to the Senate, the Attorney General could haul our people into a Federal court and prosecute them without a jury trial. Federal troops could be sent to the South to enforce the statute.

I doubt very much that the Senate will accept the bill in the form passed by the House of Representatives.

Texas water projects got a sendoff from the Senate Appropriations Committee. I am member of that committee. Have been working hard to obtain approval for projects of great importance to Texas. Was a big day for me last week when the Committee recommended appropriations for 30 of the projects.

Ten surveys of Texas streams were included in the list. The surveys, if finally approved by Congress, will enable us to learn just where flood control and water conservation projects should be constructed. That is knowledge we need to have.

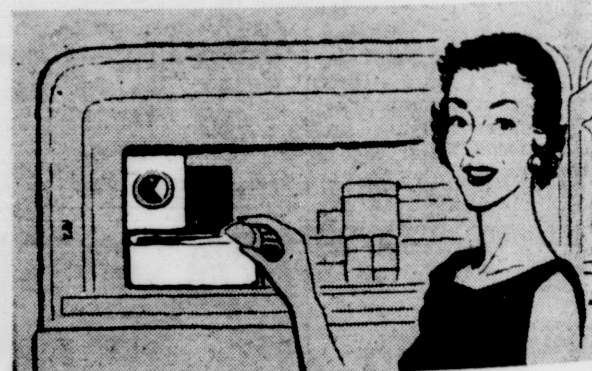

Federal expenditures for flood control and development of water resources total less than $1 billion throughout all our history. We have spent almost four times that much for foreign aid in the last 12 years. Our investment in water development projects have not been large enough. We are going to have to do more.

Small business failures are sharply up. Outgoing Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey misses the rising rate of failure as "part of the post-war adjustment." Maybe there are other reasons. The small business share of defense prime contracts is now running at the rate of 17.6 per cent. It was 19.6 per cent even in 1956. A one-year extension for the Small Business Administration has been voted by the Senate Banking and Currency Committee.

630 Receiving Social Security in Medina County

More than 630 beneficiaries in Medina County were getting monthly social security payments totaling $24,270 at the end of June. The number of beneficiaries increased by 171 over 1955 and total of monthly benefits being paid in the county at the end of the year was $6,948 over total being paid a year ago, according to D. Palmer, district manager of the social security office announced today. These increases noted, result in part from protection provided to farm families by the coverage of farm employment and self-employment payments, up to 2.6 acres out of 100 acres of social security.

Pointed out that self-employed farmers were first brought under social security in January 1955. Those over retirement age at that time, or who reached retirement age before the end of the year, became insured if they received self-employment income of at least $400 for 1955, and again in 1956. These insured persons are able to qualify for old-age benefits during the last year.

The impact of farm coverage in general on essentially all rural areas like Medina County, for instance, who was insured at retirement age by mid-April that year if he had taxable income of $400 or more in 1955 and at least $200 in 1956. Beneficiaries paid to farmers and their dependents, moreover, figured in nationwide totals for 1956. At close of the year, over 9 million people were receiving almost half billion dollars in monthly payments.

Seco Says We Should Raise The Price Of Eggs Since Steel Has Gone Up

Editor's note: The Seco Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm may be a little mixed up this week, but that's his lookout, not ours.

Dear editor:

The trouble with inflation is that not enough people understand it fully enough.

I had noticed in a copy of a newspaper which a neighbor of mine brought me a mess of fish in - for your information it was not a copy of your paper, as this one had a fishy smell - that the price of steel had recently gone up $8 a ton, which clearly indicated the steel industry has let its newspaper subscription expire, as President Eisenhower only the day before had asked business to hold prices down voluntarily, and as a result a lot of other things were automatically going up.

For example, naturally the watch manufacturers, on hearing the price of steel had gone up, will figure they ought to go up on the price of watches, as everybody knows the steel spring in a watch is made of steel, even if it doesn't weigh over an ounce.

Plow points, tractors, cars, pickups, naturally will require an increase in price, to offset the rise in the price of steel, and so I decided what was good for industry was good for me. Consequently, when I took a dozen eggs into town yesterday to sell, I told the store I'd have to have five cents more.

"How come?" the store owner asked.

"Don't you read your newspaper? It's on account of the increase in the price of steel," I explained.

Now here's the rub. Instead of nodding his head in agreement and saying there didn't seem to be any way around it, he just laughed. You could see he didn't have any full understanding of inflation and the upward price spiral.

"Don't believe I'd be interested," he said.

"But my costs are going up and I've got to have more money for these eggs."

"Don't believe I'd be interested," he said, and turned around to wait on another customer.

Now I could have outwaited him, but from long experience I knew the eggs couldn't, so I sold them at his price and came on home.

It's the people who don't understand inflation that's causing this country so much trouble. I don't mind paying $8 a ton more for steel if somebody will recognize I ought to get more for eggs.

There are more people than you realize who are out of tune with me and my hens.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

in four public feeding demonstrations...

Purina-fed steers return $20.33 more per head

Steer Fatena-fed steers gained 36% faster than steers fed single-source protein in split-lot tests. 2.98-lb. average daily gain for steers getting Steer Fatena : : 2.19 lbs. for single-source protein group. Steer Fatena steers converted an average of 7.46 lbs. of feed into a pound of beef.

In recent months, four public feeding demonstrations were conducted at sales yards in Indianapolis, Ind., Norfolk, Nebr., Louisville, Ky., and Evansville, Ind. In each test, twenty head of steers were sorted evenly into two lots. All cattle were fed the same basic ration with just one difference: one lot at each location was fed a single-source protein supplement, while the other lot in the split test received Purina Steer Fatena with stibestrol. Length of feeding varied between 100 and 140 days : : for an average of 125 1/2 days.

The gap between market price and feed cost was $20.33 wider per steer in the Steer Fatena groups (average), than for the cattle fed single-source protein. In addition, the Steer Fatena cattle put on each pound of gain with an average of only 7.46 lbs. of feed. This is more than 2 lbs. less feed than the U. S. average! (See chart above.)

Ask us right away : : at the Store with the red-and-white Checkerboard Sign... to tell you more about Purina Steer Fatena feeding programs, and how the one that suits your conditions can help you widen the gap between market price and feeding costs.

A tour was held recently to look over some plots of hybrid grain sorghums. Yields were available for all varieties, yet the group was very interested in observing the growing characteristics of all. EGG LAW MEETING
A reminder is being made about the meeting scheduled in San Antonio on July 29 to hear the newly enacted Texas Egg Law explained. The meeting will be held at the Hilton Hotel starting at 10 a.m. This program is sponsored by the Extension Service, State Department of Agriculture and the USDA and is for all egg producers and egg handlers. It has been emphasized that schedules will not permit county meetings to explain this law, so make plans to attend the San Antonio meeting.

SEARS CONTEST
The results of the spring contests in the Sears Foundation Swine Program have been announced for this area. Virgil Boehme of Castroville placed first in the boar demonstration and won a prize of $20. Anthony Boehme of Castroville placed 15th in the heavy litter contest and won a prize of $7.50. This prize money must be spent by the boys in purchasing material to improve their swine projects.

The girls in the above program were placed with boys in the Hondo area this year. A county show of the girls will be held on September 21 and the winning girl and the boy for this area will enter the area show at San Antonio.

SHORT COURSE
The annual Beef Cattle Short Course is scheduled to be held at College Station on August 12, 13 and 14. The topics to be considered are timely and important and will be presented by authorities on their assigned subjects. The program planned should be of great interest to the smallest to the largest beef cattle producers anywhere in the state.

Hi Neighbor!

When you work hard for years, making endless sacrifices, saving every dollar you could to someday own your own business, you are certainly going to be more grateful for the patronage of your customers than if you operated a store for someone else.

In the majority of instances, hard work, privation and struggle is the story behind your IGA store owner.

He appreciates your business because of the long uphill fight he had before he was in a position to get your business. Therefore your retailer asks that you make the "Total Test" in his store to prove to yourself that you save MORE with IGA's Every Day Low Prices. The true story lies at the bottom of each tape you receive, the TOTAL will tell the story.

COUNTY H. D. NEWS

By Mrs. Estella Strayhorn

Texas Home Demonstration Association

The state meeting will be held in Houston at the Rice Hotel, July 31-August 2. Plans have been made for speakers on Wednesday morning and Friday morning. Education, 4-H, and health and safety workshops will be conducted on Wednesday afternoon and recreation, citizenship and civil defense workshops will be held on Thursday morning. Mrs. W. C. Whitehead, Medina Council chairman, Mrs. Harrison Wilson THDA chairman, Mrs. Jimmie Rihn and Mrs. Darrell Hunter are delegates. The four will give reports to the ten home demonstration clubs in September.

County Home Demonstration Council

The county Home Demonstration Council held its regular meeting on Monday July 15. The group sang Ever Onward. Nine clubs answered roll call with work done the last six weeks and the Hondo report was read. During the business meeting Mrs. D. G. Odum, Devine, Mrs. Paul Bende, Biry and Mrs. Walter Etter, Castroville were elected nominating committee to name officers for the coming year. A letter of thanks from Mrs. Virgil Sutherland was read.

The annual meeting in October was discussed. Each club education chairman is to send her report to Mrs. Arthur Brucks, and the Civil Defense reports are to be sent to Mrs. M. F. Musick. The Leinweber club had charge of the demonstration and Mrs. Arthur Brucks introduced Mrs. Blackie Williams and Mrs. Martha Baker who demonstrated flower arrangements and made several lovely arrangements including a bridal arrangement, one for a child's party and fall arrangements.

Sub-District Dress Revue

Lynette Saathoff and the agent attended a sub-district dress review in Uvalde on the 23. Girls from Uvalde, Zavala and Dimmitt counties also attended.

Give a new flavor to a green salad by sprinkling it lightly with crushed oregano. Toss with a wine vinegar French dressing and sliced avocado and tomato.

Here In Hondo

Kathryn and Marianne Muennink; Linda Joyce Wiemers; Peggy Cagle; Francis and Randy Gray went to Sabinal Sunday afternoon to attend a M.Y.F. Sub-district meeting. They were accompanied by the New Fountain M.Y.F. sponsors, M&M John Ross Wentz and the Rev. and Mrs. Hornung.

Modernize your favorite barbecue sauce recipes by using the new moisture-free instant minced onion. You'll be adding true onion flavor. Use 1 tablespoon instant minced onion to replace each small onion.

Cream cheese, chopped water-cress and chopped ripe olives accented with a little lemon juice and Worcestershire sauce make a tasty filling for rolled tea sandwiches.

FANCY PANTRY

Like old Mother Hubbard who went to the cupboard, with this week's issue the doors of the Fancy Pantry close with a regretful bang because it was fun while it lasted! Since no comments have been received telling us you liked or disliked the column, you can see where that leaves us — with an empty pantry.

If you'd like the column continued, send in your recipes and menu suggestions. Be sure to include your name when you send them in.

MOLASSES COOKIES

By Mrs. O. W. Huegele
Here is one you'll want to cut out and save. Mrs. Huegele says this recipe was brought over from Germany and is over a hundred years old. Think of the cookies that have been made from it!

- 1 cup butter or shortening
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 cup molasses
- 1/2 cup hot water
- 1 tablespoon ginger
- 1 tablespoon cinnamon
- 1 teaspoon cloves
- 1 cup chopped nut meats

Mix the above ingredients together with enough flour to make a dough stiff enough to roll out and cut with a cookie cutter.

YELLOW CAKE

By Mrs. Clarence Huegele
This is the best basic cake recipe I've found, writes Mrs. Huegele, and I've never had a failure with it except one time when I forgot to put in the baking powder!

Mrs. Huegele went on to say that she uses the recipe for cup cakes, loaf cakes, tube cakes, and, for marble cake, adds chocolate to taste to one third of the batter. She also commented that any icing you have a desire to use, fits this cake nicely.

Place these ingredients in a mixing bowl, and beat by hand or mixer for two minutes:

- 2 1/2 cups sifted cake flour
- One and two thirds cups sugar
- 3/4 cup of milk
- Two thirds cup shortening
- 1 teaspoon salt

Then stir in: 3 1/2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder

Add:

- 1/2 cup milk
- 3 eggs
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Mix two minutes longer, then pour into two deep 9-inch cake tins greased and floured or lined with heavy waxed paper. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees) for 30-35 minutes.

HOB0 DINNER

By Sally Brucks
A favorite all-in-one meal at our house is one that I prepare early in the morning, put in the ice box and pop into the oven as soon as I get home from work. Takes about 30 to 45 minutes to bake, depending on the size you make the hobo packs. Since we are hearty eaters, I use one-half pound of ground beef for each portion and wrap the hobo dinners in heavy, wide aluminum foil.

Other items are the vegetables. I use the frozen ones to save time (and besides, I'm lazy). I use one-half package of potato patties (1 patty for each pack) and one package of mixed vegetables.

To one pound of ground beef 1 1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

1 teaspoon steak sauce 1 teaspoon mustard 1/2 teaspoon salt - or more, to taste

1 egg 1 cup milk

Dash of garlic salt Dash of powdered cumin

Mix thoroughly. Mixture should be moist but not too much so.

Divide into two patties about one inch thick and place on sheet of foil. Place one potato patty on each meat portion, divide the package of mixed vegetables and place over meat and potatoes.

Add salt to taste, wrap securely in the foil and place in the ice box or right in the oven. Serve this with your favorite salad and you have a stick-to-your-ribs meal. The beautiful part of all this is — no plates to wash!

FP
That's all there is, cookies. How about sending in some favorite recipes to replenish Fancy Pantry?

At the afternoon meeting members answered roll call with "A Craft Suitable for a Child."

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS

And He said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? How is it that ye have no faith?— (St. Mark 4, 41.)

Jesus, our Divine Saviour and Redeemer, speaks thus to all of us today as He spoke to His disciples. God gives us bountifully of love and good and strength. But He cannot give us faith. Through our own free choice and belief and will, we must create and maintain our faith, ourselves.

ABOUT YOUR HEALTH

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health, HENRY A. HOLLE, M.D., Commissioner

Half of the men and a fourth of the women in the United States smoke cigarettes daily, according to a recent survey by the U. S. Bureau of Census. That adds up to something like 38 million cigarette addicts — 25 million men and 13 million women.

Those figures, besides revealing the extent to which the smoking habit has become ingrained among Americans, accentuate the grimness of the recently validated relationships between cigarette consumption and the general death rate, including dreaded lung cancer.

It took the American Cancer Society four years of concentrated study of the smoking habits of 188,000 men to reach these conclusions:

A 57 per cent greater death rate from diseases of the heart and circulatory system among smokers as compared to non-smokers; a 97 per cent greater cancer death rate; a 186 per cent greater death rate due to pulmonary diseases excluding cancer, and a 29 per cent greater rate of death from all other causes.

Among men over 50 with a history of regular cigarette smoking, the general death rate is 52 per cent above the death rate for men who have never smoked.

The same study revealed a slight relationship between pipe smoking and lung cancer, and practically no relationship between cigar smoking and lung cancer. Present studies indicate that the reason cigarettes are more important in the cause of lung cancer than either pipes or cigars is that the tars in cigarette smoke is drawn in at much higher temperatures.

In support of statistical evidence relating smoking to cancer death rates, it is possible to prove the connection by laboratory methods. By condensing the smoke of burning cigarettes and painting the gummy tars on the shaved backs of mice or rabbits, laboratory technicians have produced cancerous growths on the animals.

The question as to whether men who smoked but quit have a lower death rate than those who have not quit has also been answered statistically. Men who quit ten years before the study was made showed a death rate almost as low as those who had never smoked.

Should you stop smoking? You must answer that question alone. Ask yourself if the fleeting pleasures you get from cigarettes — described as "adult pacifiers" by the late Dr. William Mayo — outweigh the risks involved.

And keep in mind that the best scientific research talent in the world is convinced that steady smoking constitutes a health hazard of major proportions.

The American Cancer Society has turned its results over to the National Institute of Health for further checking.

NO VACATION FOR VITAMINS

Many of us take vitamins during the winter to build up resistance to colds and other winter miseries. But, comes summer, too often our vitamins are stored away with mothballs.

The need for vitamins does not automatically disappear with the season. Summer, with its strenuous outdoor activities and vacation sports consumes our reserves; and the torrid hot spells rob many people of their usual vitality.

Normal appetites wane as the thermometer rises. . . diets often become lop-sided—with further effects on general good health.

Summer is the time to continue taking vitamins to build up resistance for winter months. If you have been taking vitamins, don't stop now! And, if you haven't, why not check with your physician on the advisability of beginning now.

Let him also suggest the formula that is best for you and for your children.

We at Fly Drug Co. feature a full selection of nationally known vitamins from makers of the highest ethical and pharmaceutical standards.

KILGORE'S CAPITOL COMMENTS

THE HURRICANE SEASON is upon us again and everyone in South Texas is interested in the accuracy of forecasting and weather reports. I have tried to stay abreast of the situation and do what I could to see that the Weather Bureau had the necessary tools to do the job as well as the very limitations of forecasting nature's whims permit. In response to my inquiry, the chief of the Weather Bureau has advised me by letter of their latest efforts to increase the amount of local data being furnished his office to allow even more accurate forecasting. A whole string of cooperative weather reporting stations are being located along the Gulf Coast to report weather, wind, and pressure and, where possible, tide information during hurricane threats. The Texas portion of this network should be completed this summer. Also, two mobile weather trucks, complete with meteorological instruments and two way radio will be available for dispatch to threatened areas to make reports from in or near the approaching storms. Weather instruments are planned for off-shore drilling rigs in the Gulf and a reporting station on an off-shore rig will be completed and in operation this month south-east of Corpus Christi, while still another will report from a tender working off Padre Island. Earlier plans for the installation of improved radar and upper-air equipment are going forward and will be completed just as soon as equipment is delivered.

BEYOND STORM WARNINGS weather is critical information for nearly everyone in a farming country. In addition, such businesses as the airlines and shipping, off-shore drilling, communications, aircraft manufacturers, professional and amateur sports events, power and fuel companies, which need to know what the weather is going to be like in order to plan for increased or decreased consumption, and even makers of such items as ice-cream, garden tools, insecticides, and anti-freeze solutions need reliable weather forecasts. Everything, it would seem, is geared to the weather.

NO WAY has been found to change the weather, but thanks to the cooperative efforts of so many interested people, we are approaching the point where we will be aware of exactly what is happening in the air around us so that we can make the weather work for us by allowing us to plan our work in fine detail or take refuge from storms in time to minimize damage and reduce loss of life.

THE LEGISLATIVE STORMS in Washington are a little harder to predict. The people of the United States lost an economy round when the House passed the Mutual Security (foreign aid) Bill last night authorizing $3,242,333,000 for the next fiscal year. True, we cut it $622,077,000 below the President's request and $375 million below the Senate figure, but we didn't cut it enough so that I could vote for it. I voted against the bill.

I AM getting into a bit of a domestic storm these days. Frequently when I get home at night my wife inquires about when this session may adjourn. She is not just being nosy. She says she would like to know whether to plan to send our three boys to school in McAllen (if we adjourn before school starts there) or in Washington this fall, (if the session runs into September). She gently reminds me that if we are going to get out in time to go home she needs to be about setting up a household at home. She says it would help to be advised so she can get warm climate school clothes for the boys (if you have any boys you know they outgrow all their clothes about every 120 days), register them in school in McAllen, pack a few things to be shipped down, store some things here, take the boys out of their scout units here, advise the schools here, notify the people at home when we will arrive there (they would like to know too), and do a few things herself. The boys are not quite so considerate in their questions. To put it mildly, they WANT TO GO TO TEXAS NOW AND WHY DOESN'T CONGRESS ADJOURN AND IF IT DOESN'T WHY DO WE HAVE TO WAIT AROUND FOR IT. In this respect my boys, whether they know it or not, are on the side of the taxpayer. If we adjourn the Congress will be forced to quit appropriating Federal money for a few months and that appeals to me as a matter of utmost importance.

VISITORS in the office during the past week included Robert Barnes of McAllen, Armando Ramirez of Laredo who is on duty with the Air Force at Columbus, Ohio, and Mrs. L. J. Christen, also of Laredo.

Invalids To Get Pensions Under Welfare Law

Complete and permanent invalids or persons in the community so mentally deranged that they require continuous oversight to keep from harming themselves or others may soon be able to receive small monthly checks from their State Department of Public Welfare through the new state-federal program of aid to the permanently and totally disabled. The Constitutional Amendment, which was adopted by the voters in November, 1956, limiting the amount of money that can be appropriated for this program to 1.5 million dollars per year, makes aid possible only to those who are helpless and have no relatives able to support them.

Albert O. Henley, welfare supervisor for this area, pointed out this is the only welfare program which requires consideration of the ability of relatives to support. This law defines "responsible relatives" as children, parents, step-children, step-parents, brothers and sisters. Henley said that for the first time in nearly 20 years the department's field workers will be required by law to determine the resources of relatives of persons who apply for aid.

The permanency and totality of the disability will be determined by a state reviewing physician after study of a complete physical or mental examination by the person's own private physician. Complete helplessness from a medical standpoint, rather than inability to work, is the criteria. The state will pay the private physician for his examination.

Funds for assistance payments will not be available until September 1, 1957, but applications will be taken after July 15. While the helpless individual will not be able to leave home, the persons responsible for his care may come to the local welfare office and acquaint the department with his situation. A field worker will then call, as soon as possible, at the home to take the application.

Offices in this area are located in the Old Jail Building, in the Court House yard, in Hondo.
